Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness.

-D&C 58:27

We urge our members to do their civic duty and to assume their responsibilities as individual citizens in seeking solutions to the problems which beset our cities and communities.

-President Spencer W. Kimball, April 1978 General Conference

An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity.

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

In a gentle way you can shake the world.

- Mahatma Gandhi

Contact Us For More Information
Visit us at 359 SWKT
(801) 422-9755
www.civicengagement.byu.edu
civicengagement@byu.edu

To Minor in Civic Engagement Leadership
Contact FHSS Advisement
1041 JFSB
(801) 422-3541
CIVIC ENGAGEMENT?

Civic engagement consists of individual and collective actions to address issues of public concern and work to aid in the improvement of a community.

WHAT WILL THIS MINOR DO FOR ME?

It will give you skills in:

- Organizing others
- Working successfully in a non-profit
- Communicating with elected officials
- Helping shape public policy
- Working effectively in government or other forms of public service

Examples:

Working in a non-profit organization, interning with a service organization, serving in a government office, or leading a food drive.

Leadership in civic engagement is the ability to initiate civic engagement opportunities and stimulate civic engagement by others.

Minor in Civic Engagement Leadership (15 hours)

1. Complete the following (3 hours):
   - FHSS 200 Introduction to Civic Engagement Leadership
   - FHSS 400 Civic Engagement Leadership Capstone

2. Complete 12 credit hours of upper-division courses from the following (one course must be outside your major):
   - GEOG 310, 341, 399R, 410, 510
   - POLI 311, 316, 318, 391, 397, 399R
   - PSYCH 399R, 420
   - SFL 399R, 489, 498
   - SOC 399R, 455R, 528, 598R
   - SOC W 200, 331, 360