What does the Advisement Center do?

The mission of the Family, Home, and Social Sciences Advisement Center is to create a collaborative partnership with BYU students wherein our office professionals seek to guide and empower students to fulfill their educational objectives, clarify their academic and career goals, and achieve personal and professional success in family and community.

What resources are available at the College Advisement Center?

- Academic Advising Sessions
- Advisement Resource Center:
  - Advising and Career Workshops
  - Career Information
  - Major Orientation Sessions
  - Student Surveys
- Career Exploration and Development Discussions
- Graduation Planning Guidance
- Graduation Application Assistance & Processing
- Materials Online:
  - Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) for each major
  - Major Checklists (major requirements)
  - Major Academic Plans (MAPs)
  - University Core requirements and course information

Please send your students to the FHSS Advisement Center for assistance.

Lori Seely, Director
Academic Advisor
Political Science

Kassie Nelson
Academic Advisor
Psychology/Sociology

Landon Tooke
Academic Advisor
Geography/Economics
1st Year Student Programs

Sam Prestwich
Academic Advisor
Psychology
Career Programs

Kristi Madsen
Academic Advisor
School of Family Life
Graduation Specialist

David Hunsaker
Academic Advisor
Anthropology, History,
History/Social Science Teaching Assessment Specialist

151 Spencer W. Kimball Tower (SWKT) Local: (801) 422-3541 Toll-Free: (877) 890-5295 Fax: (801) 422-0226
Website: fhssadv.byu.edu Facebook: facebook.com/byufhssadvise Twitter: fhssadv