HIGHLIGHTS FROM LECTURES: TIPS FOR LIFE

HINCKLEY LECTURE
DR. KATHRYN EDIN

“Family instability and complexity are both consequences and causes of poverty.”

“Moving the needle on mobility from poverty must include the family contexts into which children are born and raised. This is not a popular opinion, but I became convinced this was essential.”

CUTLER LECTURE
DR. RENATA FORSTE

“There’s no men’s work or women’s work; there’s just work that needs to be done.”

“I encourage you to develop both employment skills and homemaking skills as you prepare for your future. You will have more flexibility and options in an unstable economy.”

HICKMAN LECTURE
DR. C. ARDEN POPE

Referring to levels of air pollution, he said: “We just never could see any evidence of a safe threshold.”

“The benefits of improving our air quality are substantial.”

“It does appear we can have a thriving economy and clean air.”

SOCIAL WORK CONFERENCE
DR. PATRICIA PAPERNOW

“[Stepfamilies] can be happy healthy families . . . . [The] bottom line of what I want to tell you is they are very different from first-time families.”

“Becoming a stepfamily is a process, not an event, and it takes time.”

“SOCIAL MEDIA AND THE 2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION”
DR. JENNIFER STROMER-GALLEY

“Overall, Clinton attacked [using social media] at nearly twice the rate of Trump during the primaries and general election. In the news media, he was portrayed as loud, rude, and thoughtless. But in reality, his opponent attacked more.”

WOMEN’S STUDIES CONFERENCE
DR. JENNIFER FINLAYSON-FIFE

“The body is essential to becoming wise, whole beings. And that includes our sexuality.”

“I learned to discern truth, even if it contradicted church culture or traditions.”

“The body is good, and sexuality matters.”
